Using the Past to Make a Better Future

Without the benefit of a time machine, the organizers of "A Night in the Past for a Cure in the Future" use various costumes and music to take their guests back in time for a great cause. The Retro Gala that took place at the Bellevue Manor on February 19th was the 5th instalment of the series, with funds earmarked for The Princess Margaret Hospital Foundation. "A Night in the Past" has a tradition of being a great time, and this year was no exception. Presented by Platinum Music and Entertainment, A Night in the Past 2011 was a blazing success. MC'd by Breakfast Television's Dina Pugliese, the event was once again completely sold-out. Attendees enjoyed a night of entertainment, delicious food, and hope; the hope, "to conquer cancer in our lifetime." With efforts like this, the future looks extremely bright for those affected by this horrible disease.
